WATKINS GLEN HIGH SCHOOLER WILL UNVEIL
EAGLE SCOUT PROJECT THIS THURSDAY

WATKINS GLEN, NY – On Thursday, September 8 at 4pm, Watkins Glen High School student and Boy Scout Alex Gibson will unveil his Eagle Scout Project – a clean-up and rejuvenation of Gifford Park on West 4th Street in the village of Watkins Glen.

Alex has been involved in Boy Scouts for about twelve years. He decided to tackle Gifford Park for his Eagle Scout Project because he has lived by the park for many years. He felt putting some time and effort into it might bring the park the recognition it deserves. The public is welcome to a ceremony at 4pm on Thursday, September at Gifford Park to see the fruition of Alex's dedication and hard work.

Looking ahead, Alex hopes that the park will continue to be maintained and used by locals and visitors alike. He wants the park to be a place that people can enjoy and appreciate. As for his own future, Alex plans to study engineering. He is the son of Scott and Lisa Gibson of Watkins Glen.
