Watkins Glen, NY – Jerlando's Pizza and Ristorante turned 20 this year and owner Bill and Serafina Tague, along with the Watkins Glen Area Chamber of Commerce, invite you to a celebration on Wednesday, September 13 at 4pm.

Bill shares, "My family and I are very grateful to be a part of the wonderful Watkins Glen community, which has offered tremendous support over the years. We cannot say thank you enough to our wonderful customers, our family, our friends, and most importantly, our dedicated staff, who work tirelessly to make Jerlando's Ristorante what it is."

True to Jerlando's hallmark hospitality, the celebration will include delicious appetizers and drinks. A celebratory toast will be offered, along with remarks by local officials including Chamber of Commerce President and CEO Rebekah Carroll.

Rebekah adds, "Through hard work, phenomenal hospitality, and the great leadership of Bill Tague, Jerlando's has become an area institution. We welcome everyone to join in celebrating this amazing milestone and saying thank you to the Tague family, who has given so much to the community over the years."
