Fundamentals of Alcohol Intoxication Recognition Training
(FAIR Training)

Watkins Glen, NY – The Watkins Glen Area Chamber of Commerce is partnering with the Schuyler County Sheriff’s Department for a special education forum entitled FAIR Training (Fundamentals of Alcohol Intoxication Recognition). The forum is open to the public and taught by Schuyler County Sheriff Bill Yessman and Undersheriff Breck Spaulding. The training features a power point presentation, lecture, and question and answer period. A guide book will be provided by EC Cooper Insurance.

Date: Wednesday, May 22, 2019
Time: 5:30 – 7:30pm
Location: Montour Moose Lodge 426
2096 State Route 14, Montour Falls

The forum will provide training to those businesses in the community that serve alcohol. Most insurance companies require a seminar of this caliber. A certificate will be provided to participants upon successful completion of this presentation.

Schuyler County Sheriff Bill Yessman said, “The Schuyler County Sheriff’s Office is committed to training local businesses and their employees on the laws and liabilities of serving alcohol. Awareness and what to do are the key things to take away from this seminar.”

Advance registration by May 17 is required. You may register by contacting the Chamber via email: rebekah@watkinsglenchamber.com or phone: 607-535-4300.
